December 21, 2553 B.C. - Fantasy Frontier chapter 3 title page without text :) I liked the idea of having a recurring theme for this first FFSecond story arc; ... Like I said, it would be interesting to see how you guys play with this theme. If you decide to create something that will go from page to page, you can start with this post; but keep in mind that i won't mind your work, which can be unique, and hopefully make sense in your head. Perhaps if you could share what you think it is, it would be much easier. I'd also like to suggest you guys tag your thread as "Fantasy Frontier."
